Page 1 of 2 - reading the document

This sample has been prepared for the Deed Poll service demonstration.

It shows how a supporting PDF can be attached to a case and opened in the document viewer.

During the demonstration:

1. Open this document from the case.
2. Read this first page, then move to page 2.
3. Return to the case or download the original PDF.

This is demonstration material, not evidence about an applicant.

It makes no statement about the merits or outcome of this application.

You have reached the second page of the same supporting document.

This page lets the presenter demonstrate page navigation and zoom without relying on real personal information or a live legal document.

Suggested talking point

The evidence stays in the context of the case. The viewer supports reading it, while the original remains available to download.
